

TIGER TALES

St. Joseph School providing Catholic Education for 127 years
Written by a tale-telling teacher

Open Enrollment is FINALLY here! As of Monday, March 19, SJS is officially accepting student applications for the 2018-2019 school year. Please stop by the SJS office complete applications or visit our website to print applications - www.stj Catholicschool.com, under the Admissions tab. March 19 also happens to be the Feast day of our Patron Saint, Saint Joseph! Saint Joseph, pray for us.

I saw lots of art coming in Monday morning! SJS and surrounding schools have been encouraged to participate in our local Yoakum Heritage Museum Spring Art Show. This years theme is Let it Fly and all students are invited to enter art into the show.

We are continuing our lenten journey and preparing for the sacrament of reconciliation before the start of Holy Week this Palm Sunday. St. Joseph parishioners, don't forget that we have a community reconciliation service here in Yoakum on Thursday. There will also be services in Moulton, Shiner and Hallettsville - check the parish bulletin for dates and times! Tuesday, 3/27, our 8th graders will travel to Our Lady of Victory Cathedral in Victoria for the Victoria Diocese Chrism Mass. And, we invite all of our parish and community to the SJS gym to see our reenactments of the Living Stations of the Cross (Wednesday 3/28 @ 3 pm) and the Last Supper (Thursday, 3/29 @ 11:30).

Coming up this week - School pictures have been accomplished and our ready writers and creative writers have competed in our AIM writing contests - Good luck to all of our writing contestants! SJS will have Stations in the church on Friday at 3 pm. Heads up for Holy Week next week - SJS will have early release @ 12 noon on Thursday and school will be out on Friday, in observance of Good Friday. Please check the parish bulletin or app for Holy Week Mass and Service times.

We leave you this week, in prayer, lifting up our Yoakum community, our parish community and our school community. God bless.
