

TIGER TALES

St. Joseph School providing Catholic Education for 127 years
Written by a tale-telling teacher

Happy Easter Season, Tiger Tales Readers! What a glorious time of year - the celebration of our Risen Christ, the beauty of the earth as spring begins to flourish and the sacraments being made in the church - He is alive and well!

Open Enrollment is FINALLY here! As of Monday, March 19, SJS is officially accepting student applications for the 2018-2019 school year. Please stop by the SJS office complete applications or visit our website to print applications - [www.stj Catholics school.com](http://www.stj Catholics school.com), under the Admissions tab. Early registration rates/fees apply to all who register by April 30. May 1st will resume our general registration rates/fees. Please contact our SJS office at 361-293-9000 to discuss registration and tuition fees or questions!

Coming up this week: 24 Hour Eucharistic Adoration on Thursday in the meeting room at the family center. Also on Thursday, students in grades 4-8 will travel to the Alamo in San Antonio. Friday is an early release day @ 1 pm and our 8th grade students will be touring the USS Lexington and the Aquarium in Corpus Christi. Monday, April 9, begins our STUCO Pennies for Patients efforts! If you see an SJS student and would like to donate to the Pennies for Patients program, let them know and we will get the donations submitted to our SJS Student Council!

We leave you this week, in prayer and thanksgiving, lifting up our Yoakum community, our parish community and our school community, as we celebrate the resurrection of Christ. God is good, all the time; All the time, God is good.
