

TIGER TALES

St. Joseph School providing Catholic Education for 125 years
Written by a tale-telling teacher

It's the most wonderful time of the year!!! We are wrapping up practices for our Christmas Concert and One Act Play being held this Thursday, December 14, at the YHS auditorium at 7 pm. We completed our service tasks of Christmas caroling at a local assisted living home and helping wrap gifts for the local Co-op school. We played our last basketball games before Christmas break and we cheered for our Yoakum Bulldogs in round 4 of the play-offs! Each morning we have studied more about the Advent season; last week we celebrated the Immaculate Conception then we played in the snow and were treated to hot chocolate after. Friday night, our Jr. High students danced the night away at the Winter Wonderland dance hosted by Mrs. Barrera's 7th grade Life class. And just Monday, we participated in a Jesse Tree service, learning Jesus' lineage here on earth. Again I say, it is truly the most wonderful time of the year!

We thank our SJS families and friends this holiday season, and we include all of you in our prayers! Thank you all for the sacrifices you make, the prayers you pray, the donations you donate, the support you give and the love you spread. All of us here at SJS are so grateful to all of you and we realize that Catholic education in our community is possible because of a partnership with our church, school, YISD and Yoakum community! We are blessed to live and teach right here in Yoakum.

That's it for this tale-telling teacher this year! Keep SJS in your prayers this holiday season and pencil in our 17th Annual SJS PTC Gala, Once Upon a Time, on Saturday, February 24, 2018. Have a happy Advent season, Merry Christmas, Happy New Year and God's Blessings on all of you from St. Joseph School to your home!
