

TIGER TALES

St. Joseph School providing Catholic Education for 125 years
Written by a tale-telling teacher

Great things are happening here! St. Joseph School is full of projects and contests this week as we prepare for Catholic School's Week. What is Catholic School's Week? Why do we celebrate every year? Per the NCEA website, since 1974, National Catholic Schools Week is the annual celebration of Catholic education in the United States. It starts the last Sunday in January and runs all week, which in 2018 is January 28 - February 3. The theme for the National Catholic Schools Week 2018 is "Catholic Schools: Learn. Serve. Lead. Succeed." Schools typically observe the annual celebration week with Masses, open houses and other activities for students, families, parishioners and community members. Through these events, schools focus on the value Catholic education provides to young people and its contributions to our church, our communities and our nation. Check out our website for CSW details!

Coming up this week - Today, Wednesday, January 10 we will celebrate Mass as a school at 8:05 am - All are invited to celebrate Mass with us every Wednesday! All SJS students and families are invited to attend 9 am Mass this Sunday, January 28, to celebrate the start of Catholic School's Week. Immediately following Mass, SJS will host its annual Open-House in the school building and Book Fair in the SJS Library!

Thanks for reading and letting this tale-telling teacher show a little bit of her Tiger Pride in this week's article! Pencil in our 17th Annual SJS PTC Gala, Once Upon a Time, on Saturday, February 24, 2018. Have a great week and we pray for all of God's Blessings on all of you from St. Joseph School to your home!
