

TIGER TALES

St. Joseph School providing Catholic Education for 125 years
Written by a tale-telling teacher

It's #CatholicSchoolsWeek18, y'all!!! We are having so much fun celebrating this special week! What is Catholic Schools Week? Why do we celebrate every year? Per the NCEA website, since 1974, National Catholic Schools Week is the annual celebration of Catholic education in the United States. It starts the last Sunday in January and runs all week, which in 2018 is January 28 - February 3. The theme for the National Catholic Schools Week 2018 is "Catholic Schools: Learn. Serve. Lead. Succeed." Schools typically observe the annual celebration week with Masses, open houses and other activities for students, families, parishioners and community members. Through these events, schools focus on the value Catholic education provides to young people and its contributions to our church, our communities and our nation. Check out our website for CSW details!

Coming up this week - Today, Wednesday, January 31, we will celebrate Mass as a school at 8:05 am with a special blessing added as we also celebrate our nation - All are invited to celebrate Mass with us every Wednesday! Thursday, we are excited to have our parents join us to share different vocations, and Friday the 8th grade class will become teachers in the school, as they 'take over' classrooms, showing teachers how appreciated they are and giving them a 'break.' They also feed the teachers and hear it's going to be delicious!!!

And a reminder: The 17th Annual SJS PTC Gala, Once Upon a Time, is on Saturday, February 24, 2018. For tickets, donations or sponsorships, please contact the SJS Office! Have a great week and we pray for all of God's Blessings on all of you.
