

TIGER TALES

St. Joseph School providing Catholic Education for 127 years
Written by a tale-telling teacher

Here we are, ladies and gentlemen... one week from Lent! Ash Wednesday is on Valentine's Day this year! Lot's of things to think about and prepare for as we approach this new church season. Are you making plans? Perhaps you are joining the Rediscovering Jesus book study. Or maybe you are discerning which sacrifice will be most meaningful for the next 40 days. Some of you will set your clocks early on Friday mornings during Lent to go to 6:30 am Mass or you will begin your fasting sacrifices. Whatever you are choosing to do, remember to keep your focus on showing God that He is most important. Your love for Him is greater than your favorite TV series or chocolate. Your love for Him is so great that you are committing to making better choices or to studying and learning more about your faith and your personal relationship with God. Keep it simple and focused.

Coming up this week - We JUST played our last Tiger Basketball game of the 17-18 season and our teams did great this year! #TigerPride is always strong and we sure are proud of the hard work, sportsmanship and skills that were learned - congrats on a great season, boys and girls! As always, all are invited to join us every Wednesday at 8:05 am for our weekly Mass celebration at SJS. Also Wednesday, there is a General PTC Meeting at the family center starting at 5 pm. ALL parents and teachers are encouraged to attend! And, as a heads up, on Monday, the school will be going to The Grand to see the production of Junie B. Jones is not a Crook! And, next week we will be celebrating Valentine's a day early, on Fat Tuesday - seems fitting with all the sugar the students will get! Ha! Lot's of fun to be had, for sure! And in all reality, SJS is very mindful of the lenten season approaching and has chosen to celebrate early, so that all can properly prepare for a successful Ash Wednesday.

And a reminder: The 17th Annual SJS PTC Gala, Once Upon a Time, is on Saturday, February 24, 2018. For tickets, donations or sponsorships, please contact the SJS Office! Have a great week and we pray for all of God's Blessings on all of you.